The only clue I can find in the will of Samuel Whitfield's bitfall to the identity to his wife, is the following- to son George 150 A., he paying to Henry King 30L.

There is no deed on file between them. I keep going back to this will, because it names so many of the families with whom Samuel seem identified and with an Elizbeth who about fits the dates, with Henry King the Ex. of her father's will.
